THALASSOTHERAPY

This is an ancient therapy whose origins can be traced back to the Greeks. It utilises the synergic action of valuable substances contained in algae and marine derivatives, including minerals and trace elements, to give the body beauty and shape. Some of the treatments are carried out by making use of the beneficial properties of Dead Sea salt and mud which are rich in minerals and trace elements that have made it over the centuries a miraculous therapeutic and skin care product.

WRAP WITH MARINE ALGAE

Body toning, detoxifying and slimming

A true cure for your organism: rich in vitamins, trace elements and minerals, the algae are applied on the whole body and have a toning, slimming and detoxifying effect, helping contrasting cellulite and draining the skin. This treatment ends with a brief massage.

NEW

SULLE RIVE DEL MARE

Introduction to the marine world

This relaxing and detoxifying remineralising ritual begins with a bath in the salt-water lake La Luna nel Lago, with a temperature of around 36°-38°C, which allows the body to absorb the trace elements and minerals of the sea salt dissolved in the water, for a draining, detoxifying and relaxing effect. This is followed by a seaweed wrap rich in vitamins, trace elements and mineral salts with a toning, slimming and cleansing effect. The ritual ends with a deep and purifying "Thalasso facial treatment" to energise and rebalance the skin's vital functions. This ritual has been designed for deep purification and regeneration of body and face.

EASTERN MASSAGES AND RITUALS

NEI GONG TUINA 推拿

Tui Na (tūi means press, and ná means hold) is an ancient Chinese massage technique that dates back to the Ming dynasty (400 BC). It works by balancing the Yin and Yang, by dissolving energy blockages and strengthening the immune system. Gentle, energising, continuous and deep: these are the adjectives that best describe this massage. It perfectly integrates with acupuncture, moxibustion and cupping. Ideal for rebalancing the emotional sphere and treating symptoms such as migraine, insomnia, dyspepsia, backache, neck pain and scapular-humeral periarthritis.

GUA SHA FACIAL TREATMENT

An innovative face massage created according to the principles of holistic beauty. Gua Sha an ancient Chinese medicine practice mainly widespread throughout Asia. Specific instruments made of jade or horn are repeatedly passed over the skin of the face to drain ducts and activate blood circulation. This technique is associated with a facial toning massage performed using olive oil. Oval of the face seems redesigned, the skin appears naturally bright and a profound sense of relaxation is conveyed.

GUA SHA LEGS

A massage with a draining and anti-cellulite action performed using Gua Sha, a Chinese technique that stimulates the duct areas and the needle accumulation points according to specific manipulation techniques, with a special focus on the legs and buttocks. An immediate and pleasant sensation of lightness is felt in the legs. This is due to the draining action of the manual techniques, which reshape the silhouette and tone the skin.

HAMMAM RITUAL

This face and body purification ritual is the Lefay SPA re-interpretation of an ancient Middle Eastern tradition carried out in the Ovidio Private SPA. It begins with a steam bath (calidarium) to prepare the skin for exfoliation using black soap and the Kassa glove. This is followed by a Rhassoul mud body pack and finally a relaxing massage with pure shea butter. Each stage of the body ritual will be accompanied by a face treatment that uses natural products based on black soap, argan oil, donkey's milk and rose essential oil for a final result of maximum relaxation and glowing skin.
