LEFAY SPA SIGNATURE TREATMENTS

Lefay SPA Signature treatments have been created combining traditional massage techniques to stimulate energy points and meridians, and are tailor-made for the individual's physical and mental state, for a deep and long-lasting result. The Signature offer includes: energy massages, energy aesthetic treatments for the face and body and special treatments of the "Perfumes of the Lake" section.

01.

FACE & BODY ENERGY BALANCING MASSAGES

The Lefay SPA massages aim to reactivate energy channels as well as rebalance the energy of body and mind, and are personalised according to the individual's psycho-physical status. They have been developed by associating the principles of Classical Chinese Medicine with Western techniques, thanks to a combination of traditional massages techniques with the stimulation of "points and meridians" which activate the "energy" systems, ensuring that the treatment is deep and long-lasting. This method enhances the effects of a traditional massage, because the body receives an "energy message" which will be remembered and elaborated with time. All massages are carried out with Lefay SPA natural certified products and are accompanied by chromotherapy and aromatherapy with essential oils.

BODY MASSAGES

RELAXING

Scambio nel Vento

Much of our daily tensions are embedded onto different areas of the body, especially the head, neck and shoulders. This massage uses Western techniques, including kneading and friction, on energy points in the body. Slow and medium pressure acts on the muscular tension and the stimulation of energy points allowing you to relax your entire body.

STRESS-RELIEVING

La Quiete

The anti-stress massage is performed with Western techniques on the energy functions. Leads to deep relaxation and helps our vital energy to repair itself from the stress to which it is subjected. Using slow movements with medium and enveloping pressure, this massage stimulates certain energy points that have the specific and intrinsic ability to ease muscle tension and, more generally, relax the spirit, mind and body. Other energy points are activated to nourish the whole organism, thereby eliminating stress. The rejuvenated body will be able to perceive lightness as the overwhelming feeling of relaxation, peace of mind and change.

YIN AND YANG REBALANCING TUINA WITH MOXIBUSTION

I Colori dell'Uomo

According to Classical Chinese Medicine, well-being corresponds to the inner balance of two fundamental forces: Yin and Yang. These untranslatable terms represent two opposing and complementary forces present both in nature and in man. Depending on the energy constitution, these massages restore the balance between Yin and Yang, providing well-being for the body as a whole.

White. In a healthy situation, each organ should perform the function it has been created for. Sometimes, however, lifestyle or other factors can disrupt the body's processes. The White Massage regulates lifestyle disorder. It is carried out using a rhythmic and reactivating technique: gentle percussions bring blood and energy to the tissues, stimulating energy activity and improving breathing.

Black. It treats the whole body, working on the strength and stress level in the organism. It focuses particularly on the kidney, considered the seat of the strength and metaphorically compared to the roots of a tree. It uses relaxing, yet intense and firm manual techniques, concentrating on the posterior muscles and the lumbar region. It concludes with a head massage that relieves tension.

Red. According to Classical Chinese Medicine, blood is not only responsible for the nourishment of the body, but also for its peace of mind. Blood represents the relationship between the "self" and the others, our empathy skills and our ability to understand and not judge oneself. The deep, enveloping manual techniques work on the postural musculature of the body and in the end stimulate some points on the face and ears, where we can find the "reflected image" of the head with all its functions.

Blue. It treats all cases of lack of energy, tiredness, difficulty in waking up. It helps supply the body with energy, reactivating the Qi. It is a dynamic, rebalancing and invigorating massage, particularly indicated even after an illness or health problems.

Yellow. It refers to the ability to be 'centred', i.e. aware and consistent with oneself. It means saying or doing what we think is right without being influenced by what others expect. On a psycho-physical level, it works on the points where anxiety and sadness are concentrated. Deep, enveloping massage that regulates the energy of the centre which has been diverted or derailed by worries, giving a feeling of serenity.

Green. It is related to digestion, which, in Classical Chinese Medicine, means internalising what comes from outside. It can therefore refer to a real meal or to something we have read, heard, felt. It deals with memory, the ability to remember and connect, the ability to live light-heartedly, to look forward to the future without fear. It uses stimulating and dynamic manual skills, insisting on the legs.
